ABOUT THE MANOR

Rooted in Croyde Since 1902.

The building dates back to the 16th century, when it served as a coaching inn for weary travellers. In 1902 it became a public house and it's been the heartbeat of Croyde ever since. Pull up a chair by the fire, take a table in the garden, or let the kids loose in the play park. There's room for everyone here.

> "Croyde's most family-friendly pub. Great food, a warm welcome, and a proper Sunday.",
